DISPLAY BY BRUCE WALTER BARTON OPENS
MONDAY IN GALLERY OF VISUAL ARTS AT UM

MISSOULA--

An art exhibit entitled "Back to the Rough Ground," featuring works by Bruce Walter Barton, a University of Montana art professor, will be open to the public without charge beginning Monday, Sept. 27, at UM.

The display will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays in the Gallery of Visual Arts in Turner Hall at UM from Sept. 27 through Oct. 15. Barton's works include recently painted constructions. This will be the first show of the season at the gallery.

Persons interested in receiving information about exhibitions and other activities sponsored by the UM Gallery of Visual Arts may phone Michael Diven, the gallery director, at 243-5416, or the UM Department of Art, 243-4181.

Diven, who joined the UM faculty as an assistant professor of art this fall, formerly taught at Humboldt State University, Arcata, Calif. Besides being director of the Gallery of Visual Arts, Diven teaches painting at UM.
